

John Johnson

March 5, 1939 - December 9, 2014

JOHN CLARK JOHNSON, son of the late William H. and Inez Johnson, was born on March 5, 1939 in Cockeysville, Maryland. He departed this life on December 9, 2014.

John "Buddy" was educated in the Baltimore County Public School system. Buddy was a professional paver operator. During his 40 plus year career, he worked for Harry T. Campbell Company and T. C. Simons.

Buddy loved cars, especially his El Camino, Cadillac and antique cars. He was well versed and could talk on any subject, loved to tell the stories of old and had a great sense of humor. He was a great fan of the Baltimore Ravens. Most of all, he Loved his Liz.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Elizabeth Johnson; one brother William (Rosita) Johnson; two sisters, Nellie Hill and Margaret Ross; two grandchildren Shawnika and Jermaine Drumgoole and five great grandchildren. Special cousins: Marie Williams, Myrtle and Sandra Smith. Four brother-in-laws and four sister-in-laws. A host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
