

John Delano Johnson

January 16, 1940 - April 21, 2011

John Delano Johnson "Pee Wee" was born in Richmond, Virginia to the late Rosetta Johnson and John Irvin Morris on January 16, 1940. He departed this life Thursday, April 21, 2011 at Hunter-Holmes McGuire Veterans Hospital. PeeWee was preceded in death by his son, Cory Johnson and brother, Frank Johnson.

John was affectionately known as PeeWee and was a friend to many. He grew up in the Fulton area and attended Armstrong High School. He was later drafted into the United States Army where he served most of his tour of duty in Alaska.

PeeWee joined Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in Fulton at an early age and remained a member until his death. He worked most of his life as a carpenter for various companies. He later joined the staff of the St. James Baptist Church Child Development Center, where he drove the Center's school van carrying students to and from school. He cherished this job greatly because of his love for children and held great pride in his responsibilities.

He is survived by his loving wife, Sylvia H. Johnson; son, Everett Johnson and daughter, Chelsy Eagleton; brother, Frederick Johnson (Holly); four sisters, Mona Baker, Elizabeth Hargrove (Lenioda), Rosa Wright and Sophronia Morris; devoted aunt, Mildred Jackson; sister-in-law, Leslie Johnson; a host of nieces,nephews,other relatives and friends.
