

John F. Kennedy

December 16, 1963 - July 20, 2010

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY was born on December 16, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Albert and Mary Kennedy. Suddenly on July 20, 2010 he was called to eternal rest.

John was educated in then Baltimore City Public School System and had many employment opportunities, but the latest was with the Baltimore City. John loved helping people wherever he went. He was a very fun and loving person whose hobbies included gambling, playing pool, coaching basketball and making friends. Through it all he loved to have a good old time wherever he went.

John leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Latisha Kennedy (Baltimore); two sons, John and Jarrod Kennedy (Rocky Mount, N.C.); two brothers, Michael Kennedy (Phyllis) of Baltimore and Damion Kennedy (Grace) of Baltimore; four sisters, Brenda of Baltimore, Teresa Eaddy (Craig) of Baltimore, Evelyn Kennedy of Baltimore, Andrea Kennedy of Baltimore; on sister-in-law Beatrice Kennedy of Baltimore; adopted father, Hayden Alexander who they shared a mutual love for each other, and adopted son, Mike Lucas; two special brothers, Cornelius Smith and Sammy Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ To the Kennedy family; our prayers are with you during this most difficult time in your life. John will be sorely missed. Let the memories of his love/laughter fill your hearts and may it be a source of comfort to you. We all grew up together and the Durham street community never lost it touch. Just know that you all are loved by the Hudson/Moore family. Mrs. Arlene Hudson & Mrs. Sheila Moore
