“ I send my sincerest condolences to the family for your loss. May the hope given to us in Acts 24:15 that "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" comfort you as it has comforted me in my times of sorrow.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Sadly death is something we can't do anything about, but it hurts us more than any other event in our lives. Thankfully Jehovah God can do something about it, and because of his great love for us he has a purpose to end all sickness and death in the very near future. When his son Jesus was on earth God gave him this power to bring persons back from the dead. He ressurected Lazarus who had been dead for 4 days, a 12-year old girl, and at Luke 7:11-17 he ressurected a young man who was the only son of his mother. Can you imagine her joy? In the neara future we can experience that same joy when we are reunited with our loved ones. That is his promise to us, and we can trust everthing he says because his word is truth. I pray you find pece and comfort in all of his wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hi! Peterson's May I take this opportunity to express me condolences to u all in losing John. When death strike it breaks the family circle. I know the feeling of losing a dear loved one too. We may have some questions when we lose a loved one in death such,WHY? What are they doing now? Was that God purpose? The bible has all the answer for you all. People die because of our frist parents disobeying our heavenly father.The bible say what the die are doing at Ecc. 9:5 say. Mankind was created to live forever if they OBEY their creator in all things, Gen.3:16-17. Knowing these uplifting thoughts will help to heal the hurt of losing someone in death. I look forward to the time very soon when no one will ever die again, Rev.21:3-5. I send my sincer fellow feeling, Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
