

John L. Jones

March 12, 1949 - December 2, 2004

John Louis Jones was born on March 12, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 2, 2004. After a long illness, god has blessed him with sleep. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, and later married Margaret Jean Smith. Through this union, two children were born, Anthony Louis Jones and John'na Monique Jones. Louis worked at Good Samaritan Hospital as Supervisor of the Housekeeping Department for many years. Louis loved life, his family and friends. His passion was getting together with friends and family, having good food, good fun, and a friendly game of cards. Louis was always there if you needed someone to talk to. He was a good listener. He leaves to mourn: son, Anthony L. Jones; daughter, John'na M. Jones; four sisters, Delores Debbie, Sheila, Marsha; five brothers, Edward, Rodney, Gregory, Keith and Erin; six grandchildren, Damien, Terry Jr., Anthony, Lavar, Jazmia and Yaniece; and a host of family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Some people have a way of making others feel good. When they are not around we miss them. Our Creator knows how we feel because of the loss of His dear son. Since death is an enemy, notice what God will do to it at 1 Corinthians 14:26 which says, " As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. I wish this message brings you hope for the future!##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Please accept my sincere condolences. It seems so unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. However, the bible assures us at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial rombs will hear hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you draw comfort from the holy scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
