“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe our every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev.21:4). Continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I offer my deepest condolences to the family during this difficult time. He lived almost 100 years; far beyond the life span recorded in the bible which says at Psalm 90:10, "The days of our years are seventy years, and if because of special mightiness they are eighty years. Yet even though that is the case, it was always Jehovah's purpose for people to live forever. We can see that by the length of time people lived during early biblical times. It was normal for people to live to be 700, or 800, even 900 years. Methuselah, the oldest living man recorded, lived to be 969 years old. Genesis 5:27. It is still God's purpose for people to live forever, and even though that seems impossible; with God "All things are possible." In the new world that Jehovah is making, obedient people will live for all eternity, growing in knowledge and love for their creator. John 17:3 tells us the key to life. It says, "This means everlasting life; their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ." Even the dead will be brought back to life to share in that knowledge of our creator and of his son, Jesus Christ, because Jesus will call the dead, and they will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
