

John Calvin Lee, III

January 19, 1980 - April 6, 2012

John Calvin Lee, III was born on January 19, 1980 in Detroit, Michigan to John Lee, II and Claudette Lee. He graduated from Henrico High School in Richmond, VA. While attending Moody Middle School, John was a member of the basketball team and was named "Most Valuable Player". He continued to pursue his love for the game as a member of the basketball team in high school.

After high school, John worked for Tyson Foods, Inc. and also in the Sanitation Department for the City of Richmond.

John departed this life on April 6, 2012. John was preceded in death by his father, John Lee, II and both grandfathers, John Lee and Clarence L. Williams; one grandmother, Ida Boisseau and one uncle Clarence L. Williams, Jr.

John was a devoted father to his one and only child, his son, DaJohn Lee (mother: Leteia Sheppard).

John had a very special and close relationship with his mother, Claudette Lee. She affectionately called him "John-John" and he called her "My Wink". He had one sister, his pride and joy, Tiffany Lee.

John leaves not just to mourn, but to cherish and find comfort and peace in memory of him, his devoted mother, Claudette (Joel A. Dawkins), father-figure; his loving sister, Tiffany; his wonderful son, DaJohn; a cherished grandmother, Willie Bea Lee; several uncles; Chandler Lee (Harriette) of Maryland, Jeffery and Tracey Lee of Michigan, Michael Williams (Eddie Mae) of Hampton, VA, and Mark Williams of Richmond and several aunts, Deborah Williams and Barbara Lewis of Richmond and Marla and Sherrell Lee of Texas and a host of cousins and friends.

He will be deeply missed by us all. We will always love him as he will forever hold a special place in our hearts.

“ Words cannot express the pain I feel. Never did I think you would be gone so soon. We shared so many good times since came into each others lives and I will forever cherish those memories. I thank God for giving me the opportunity to know and love you. Sleep peacefully, and I'll see you again one day.
Love always,
Red

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Dear John,

*My eyes filled up with tears as I heard the news
It never occurred to me, how much I could lose
I find myself wishing that it wasn't real
Every time I think about it, pain is all I can feel
Tears fall from my eyes, I can barely see
But my heart tells me that he'll always be with me
I'm glad he feels no pain now-he lives in a perfect land
I can still feel the soft touch on my shoulder of his loving hand
I lie in bed and cry at night
And I don't feel any better in the morning light
And I will love and miss him forever
Until the day we are again together.
Together in that perfect place above,
Filled with caring, sharing and love
But until that day comes- I will wipe my tears away.
And hopefully see him again someday*

Rest In Paradise,

There aren't enough words in all the books in all the world to express the sadness I feel. You were my friend, my confidant and in every sense of the word a "brother". I am forever grateful for the time we had together. The times we laughed and the times we cried. You helped make me a better person and for that I will honor your life and your memory by being the best person that I can be. I will miss you tremendously!

Love always,
