“ ASNF. I will never forget how my dad loved my mom and my mom loved my dad. People tried to confuse me with lies. My parents loved each other and I love my parents. My mom has stuck by me. My dads family never visit. Sherry lives less than 15 minutes away but she don't visit. She saw me at IHOP and Wawa and didn't speak. She looked right at me. My dads mom wrote one letter and sent pictures and wrote a bad note about my mom. Just get over yourselves. I miss my dad. He was the greatest! I miss Gio.

“ I have a funny story,
Remember when we on our way home from a gig out in the Rappahannock.. I know it had to be atleast a 13 hour day we set up for this massive band.. 8 Mics, 10 monitors, 8 speakers, we had to run the snake from the balcony down the steps MAN that was a day. I DJ'd for the first time that gig.. so fast forward to the end we were driving across the Rappahannock bridge and it was snowing SO hard and we was in big yellow and we kept sliding and you kept doing those Bernie mac impressions man I was dying laughing we got to the house and passed out in the truck man those were the days.. I love you..

“ I don't really know where to start... Man I miss you so very much. All the lessons you taught me you would be incredibly proud of me.. of the man I've become. The things that I've accomplished.. I really wish I could have a conversation with you today is pretty tough and I'm praying for strength I'm praying for encouragement I'm praying for the push to keep going today. I love you and I miss you so much. I wish things were different with me and your son bc if he knew you like I knew you then he would be so proud of the battle you fought to hang on. I wish I could see how much he has grown so I can tell him some stories about the greatest man I've ever known... So today I will light a cigar in your name. #Themarathoncontinues #Onelove Signed,
Your nephew/Son Devin

“ I would like to say to John's family that he was a good man and co worker and the best range instructor I ever had. We worked together at the courts as well as the jail. He will be truly missed. He was very proud of his son and how great his son played the drums. My prayers are with you for God to comfort you at this difficult time. Love always retired D/S Sheila Gregg

“I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday and days before that too. I think of you in silence. I often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part.

I look forward to “Just Kickin’ It” with you on the other side of the rainbow. I love you, Low.

“ My memories of John are of him as a young child when his family and mine attended Shiloh Baptist Church. Then I got to know him as a young man where he worked at the Henrico Sheriff's Office. He always came to my class and greeted me with a smile. He was such a proud father and loved Trey. He always had a story to tell and shared pictures of his son. I have missed his presence here at work and pray that in the midst of your sorrow, Shelia, Trey and family, that you all find comfort in the joyful memories that you have shared. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are in every thought and prayer.
