

John Marshall

February 20, 1935 - January 22, 2017

JOHN MARSHALL, son of the late John Marshall and Weadi Bernett, was born on February 20, 1935 in Cleveland, Ohio. He departed this life on January 22, 2017, after a short bout with pneumonia.

John was raised by Frank and Izella McMichael with his brother Hayme. John and Hayme were raised separately from their other siblings. John attended school in Cleveland. Upon completion, he entered the US Air Force and completed instruction of the Air Training Command to become an Airborne Radio Operator. John remained in the military and completed multiple assignments overseas, including time in Iran and Vietnam. He owned businesses internationally which included popular night clubs.

John enjoyed traveling the world and he settled down for some time after marrying a woman from Sweden. They eventually parted ways and John returned to the United States. He remained employed by the federal government and worked as an Aircraft Technician. It was in California where John was introduced to the love of his life, Barbara, by a mutual friend. John and Barbara were married and spent many years in California before moving to Florida, Nevada, and Maryland. In the early 1990's they came to Baltimore to care for their granddaughter. Together with Barbara, John helped to raise Amanda.

John was a kind man who loved his wife tremendously and treated everyone with respect. He was quiet and mild tempered, with a good sense of humor and a contagious smile. He shared amazing stories from his life and was a good listener. He enjoyed cooking, watching sports, and was an excellent swimmer. John suffered from diabetes as a child into his older age which impacted his health. He loved ice cream, milkshakes, bananas, and peanuts. He will be missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to celebrate his life and cherish his memory: his wife, Barbara; stepson, Leon; granddaughter, Amanda; grandson, Dale; two nieces, Franzell and Joann; and nephew-in-law, James. John also leaves several other great nieces, nephews, and a host of other family and friends.
