“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one, John. I pray that you will be comforted by God's promise at Acts 24:15 that there will be a "resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". At that time we will be able to welcome back our dead loved ones again.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ The death and sudden death of a loved one is very hard, you have my deepest sympathy for your lost of John. We can look forward to the day John 5:28 will be fulfilled when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out to a resurrection. May you keep the memory of John in your hearts forever.
