

John McLeod Sr.

January 4, 1941 - September 27, 2020

Legacy of Life

On Sunday, September 27, 2020, John Henry McLeod, Sr., our beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend made the transition from earth to Heaven to be with his Lord Jesus. He was born January 4, 1941 to the late Daniel “Dan” and Phyllis McLeod of Sumter, South Carolina. He was preceded in death by his sister, Vernell Sims.

John attended the Richmond Public School System and graduated from Armstrong High School, June 7, 1963.

He was employed by Phillip Morris as a machinist for more than 30 years of dedicated service. On August 29, 1964, he married his dear friend and love of his life Barbara Ann Crawford at Fourth Baptist Church, which he was a member. From that union they reared six adorable children, Tracie, John, Yolanda, David, Lowell and Tremaine. Barbara was the extension of his heartbeat and the joy of his being. Together they spent 56 years of glorious times; along with their beautiful family and grandkids whom he loved and they love him just as much.

He was a well-respected man within his community and would always lend a helping hand no matter who you were. His life’s enjoyment were art, fixing things, especially lawnmowers and spending time at the casinos. John was an avid RedSkins Fan, anything red and black that portrayed his team was a delight to him. He was known to be a happy person that was motivated, caring, loving, supportive, friendly, and protective over his family. You could often hear him say “I’m going to throw you over the highway fence”. He would want to be remembered for living his life to the fullest and loving his family.

John started his journey homeward, as he left many standing to cherish his memories a loving and devoted wife, Barbara Crawford McLeod; children, Yolanda Yvette McLeod, Tracie McLeod-Carter, Tremaine Caldwell, Lowell Gilbert Crawford, John “Buster” Henry McLeod Jr., and David Leroy McLeod; nine grandchildren, Ebony, Latashia, Arrianna, Chenise, Kierra, Logan, Brandon, Lamont and Zhian; three siblings, Mary McLeod, David McLeod (Margie) and Harrison McLeod (Brenda); mother-in-law, Dolores Brooks; a devoted niece, Betina McLeod and her daughter, Destiny Wilson; along with a host of other relatives and caring friends.
