“ 7yr's later and it still hurts gone to soon. You are so missed you were my son born to another mother. Loved you like my own, seems you were the only one to understand all that I went through. Missed the talks we had, I always wish I could take that day back and maybe had called you up for one of our talks and maybe just maybe you would have never went outside. God knows best so until I see you again rest in peace son. Love you Vie.

“ There are no words of sympathy that can erase the pain you feel over your loss, but time is a healer of all pain and sorrow, I hope that the time that has passed is helping you to heal, memories are Jehovah God's gift to us let them help you to heal, in time the memories will come without the pain. We are assured at Isaiah 41:10 that Our God will fortify and help us, call on him he will listen, my deepest sympathy is with all of you.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 says- "There is going to be a resurrection." This means coming back to life with the hope of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. In the Bible we have a written record of many resurrections that occurred right here on earth. (Luke 7:14-16, Acts 20:7-12 and John 11:21,43-44) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about this loving hope from the Bible and may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his son Jesus Christ.(John 17:3)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ In our lives we will have tribulations, and death is one of them, but when death claims the life of young ones, who have their whole life ahead of them, our heart breaks even more. Please know that you are not alone at this time of, great sorrow. Our loving father in the heaven is right there waiting to comfort you. Talk to him, he knows the pain that death brings. He felt that pain, when his beloved son Jesus Christ died, and because he knows the pain. He promise to put a end to death-- Isaiah 25:8 “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...” As we all know, “it is impossible for God to lie.” Hebrew 6:18. . In time the pain will ease and you will remember the good time, because Jehovah is a God of love and he will never give us to much to bear, at times like this we need to do what Psalms 55:22 tells us to do, “Throw your burden on Jehovah himself. And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter.”###imported-begin###D.Kennedy###imported-end###
