

John Mills

August 8, 1940 - May 23, 2003

John Mills Jr. was born on August 8, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the son of the late John Mills sr. and the late Mrs. Blanche Maggie Mills. He departed this earthly life on May 23, 2003. John Mills Jr., known as Jr., grew up in East Baltimore. He attended Baltimore City Schools and graduated from Dunbar senior High School. As Jr. was growing up, he was a very private person who always loved his mother and wouldn't let anyone get in his way. He also loved picture books of trucks and cars. He always said that one-day he would get that 4-door Maxima 2004 of his dreams. He also enjoyed his music and his great-great-great niece, Shy'liyah. He also wanted to make sure that Shy'liyah got to school and back. Upon completion of his educational studies, he enlisted into the United States Army and served his state and country with honors. His enlistment in the Army led him to worldwide travels to many foreign countries. Later on, he served again with the United States Air Force. After returning to the United States to his family, he went on to truck driving school and graduated, then he became employed by Transcontinental Refrigerated Line, Inc. for many years. He also drove for many other truck driving companies. In his spare time, he enjoyed taking the elderly to the stores or bank, etc. Jr. also would think about his late sister, Beulah Mills. Jr. leaves to mourn: his brother, Ralph Mills; four nieces, Denise, Genise, Shelly and Lenora; two nephews, Robert and Steve; and a host of other great-nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
