

John Darryl Moore

October 21, 1964 - July 9, 2022

John Darryl Moore was born in Baltimore, Md on October 21, 1964 to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph and L. Loretta Moore. He is the second eldest of their four children. He passed from this life on July 9, 2022.

Affectionately known as Darryl to everyone he knew, he received his formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He held numerous positions across various fields of employment including the Port of Baltimore, Powell Recovery Center, NAPA Auto Parts and most recently, McCormick & Company Spices through Adecco. Darryl's entrepreneurial spirit was apparent in his ability to erupt an open-air store in east Baltimore, that he dubbed: The Tent:, which he manned for two years, assisted at times by his godbrother Mikele and his sons. Darryl received Christ as his personal savior as a young adult at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church.

As a child he loved to skate in his Ball Bearing #5's, swim at Patterson Park and Chick Webb pools, and was skilled in karate, holding several belts and titles. His formative years were spent i Prentiss Place with friends who became family and lasting memories were created.

Darryl liked his home team, the Ravens, dogs and horses, and enjoyed dancing and listening to rap and R & B music, especially Miss Anita Baker. Additionally, he appreciated a great comedy show, and his boisterous laughter was unforgettable. He loved most action or crime films and watched his favorites, Scarface and Heat, regularly. Darryl Loved playing cards and was a master chess player, rarely finding a formidable opponent and starting a march anywhere at any time.

Darryl was meticulous about his appearance, a sharp dresser who had loads of style, setting fashionable trends for decades. His marked interest in luxury clothing and vehicles attributed to this style. As he grew older, he became interested in working more with his hands and side-by-side with his brother in-law, Donnell. He was becoming a bit of a handyman. Darryl loved a good meal, requesting his sister's seafood salad and his mother's banana pudding often and even making his own "famous" fruit salad for cookouts and family gatherings.

Darryl loved people and they loved him back. He rarely met a stranger and was a fierce protector of those he loved. He expressed his love through daily tests containing scriptures and affirmations, ending them with the tagline "Peace is Priceless' Darryl was well-known for his generosity and never saw others go without. If he could help, he did.

Darryl met and fell in love with Michelle Lindsey, his "Yummy", more than 20 years ago. They loved to frequent parties together, gather with family and friends and love on their grandchildren.

Darryl was preceded in death by his father, "Rudy" Moore and younger brother, Rudolph Donnell Moore.

He leaves to further spread his love: his devoted mother, L. Loretta Black; brother Wayne (Karen) and "one and only" sister Desire (Donnell); his aunts, Carolyn Davis, Rosetta Styles (Wayne), Jeveta Jones, Judy Beatty, his favorite aunt and confidant, Rozaline Howell, and Bridget Jenkins (Keith); children, Darryl DeSean Moore and Dontray Moore; bonus children, Latoya, Brittney (Douglas), Whittney, Tiffany, Dalvin and My'onna; his grandchildren Iylah, Darius, Daylen, DJ and Brielle; three nieces, Denita (Marquise), Shontae (Eric, Jr.), and Daquetta; three nephews, DeShane (Sherian), Dwayne Jr., and Demetrius; "cousin-brother" Ronald Taylor Jr.; lifelong friends Eric Brown, Terry Williams, Linda "Monique" Racks, Dwayne Curbean and Mark "E.I." Williams; special mother figure, Ms. Bae; and a host of other family and friends.
