

John Moses Moore

December 5, 1939 - October 28, 2015

JOHN M. MOORE, affectionately known as “Moses” was gifted to Oscar and Josephine on December 5, 1939 in Greenville North Carolina. His sunset occurred on October 28, 2015.

As a young man, John assisted with the building of the East Coast University in North Carolina. In the early 1960s, he left North Carolina and traveled to Baltimore, Maryland where he took up permanent residence. Soon after the move, he became employed by Buffalo Tank, Sparrows Point until the company closed their doors permanently

John took pride in his appearance at all times and was known as a snazzy dresser. His prize possessions were his hats and his walking canes. He also took pride in his family. If there was ever a question about our relatives, we could always go to him and he would give us a clear answer of who the relative was, where they was born, who their mama and papa was and the names of all of their children. What a blessing to the family!!!

John has left precious memories to his children, John (Shirlene), Trina (Melvin), Yvette, and June (Olu); seven grandchildren, five great grandchildren; sisters, Helen Adams, Ruth Paytori, and Bessie Moore; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and close Friends.
