

John K. Owens

January 23, 1962 - March 26, 2019

John Kenneth Owens the youngest child of the late John and Shirley Mae Owens was born on January 23, 1962 in Baltimore Maryland. Kenny was premature, so he knew how to fight for his life from the very beginning.

On March 26, 2019 at Northwest Hospital. He transitioned peacefully while holding his son Terrence's hand.

John was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He held various jobs throughout his life.

Kenny accepted Christ and attended church with his mother and other family members. Kenny was reared in the home with his parents Jack and Sissy. It was there that he and his siblings Juanita (Neicy) who preceded him in death, Larry (Fuzzie), Bobby and Dawn formed an unbreakable bond of encouragement, love and support that they continue to exemplify.

Kenny met the love of his life Sharon Hamlett and on November 2, 1986 they welcomed a handsome baby boy they named Jijuan Kenneth, soon following a beautiful baby girl named Tiffany Nicole and their family was complete with the arrival of a baby boy they named Terrence Lamar who bared the food looks of his grandfather Jack even down to the silky black hair.

Kenny's children remember the great advice he would give them, he wanted them to learn from his mistakes. Kenny would tell them "don't talk me to death" when he was the one who wouldn't stop talking, frequently having to rewarm his food numerous times because it would get cold while he was talking.

Kenny enjoyed reading, watching television, movies and listening to one of his favorite artists "John Legend". He would always meet his Children and Grandchildren Downtown to enjoy a day together. Kenny loved animals also, especially his beloved "Blue" who took care of each other.

John affectionately known as Kenny and Kenny Moe loved his Grandchildren dearly. He took Kennedy and Karter to the playground to play with them often. Kenny was devoted to his Mother. Every time he walked in the house he would holler "hey Ma." Kennedy was his special helper who would help care for her Great Grandmother when she was sick.

Kenny was caring, sweet and kind hearted. He leaves to cherish his memories, his children Jijuan, Tiffany and Terrence Owens. The love of his life and great friend Sharon Hamlett. Grandchildren Kennedy Maleah Christian, Karter Elijah and Tristen Kenneth Owens (due any day). Brothers Larry and Bobby (Beverly) Owens, sisters Dawn Moore. Mother in Love Shirley Hamlett and a host of other relatives and friends.
