

John Thomas Quattlebaum

September 17, 1943 - October 13, 1943

John T. Quattlebaum passed away on Friday October 13, 2023. He was born in Columbia South Carolina on September 17, 1943 to Frank and Mary Quattlebaum.

Together they had 11 beautiful children together. John graduated from Park Heights Senior High. From there, John enrolled in the military and travel many countries. Germany being one of his favorite places.

After his tour ended in the military, he landed in Baltimore, MD and married his ex wife Martina. Together they had one child Mia Quattlebaum and a step son Darren Foot.

John love sharing stories about his travels in Germany and the things he saw. John Quattlebaum worked at Loyola College for 45 years when he retired. He enjoyed vistiting his two grandchildren Arjah Evans and Jaismane Evans, histwo great grandchildren Jahmia Battle and Shymia McCall.

He always kept in touch with his niece Phillis Quattlebaum. She often sent him letters, cards and care packages through the mail. They would talk on the phone for hours.

John favorite things to do was eat watch sports and read the newspaper. He would always say "what are we going to eat", then look at Mia for a plate of food or Jaismane for a ride to find food. His granddaughter Arjah was always ready to feed him her delicious soul food dinners. Maybe that's why we could never find him at dinner time.

He would read the newspaper everyday. The times we spent looking for a paper for him, John spent time with his friends at McDonald's playing cards where they would shoot the breeze. Most of his time spent with his friend Jack. John loved watching sports. Tennis was his favorite sport to watch. He always talked about the Williams sisters.

John The Wolf Quattlebaum was a friendly sweet man who loved his family and friends. He always shared stories with his nurses and doctors. They became family to him. He enjoyed his life very much. Now hi is in Jehovah's memory waiting to open his eyes again. Act 24:15

"And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."
