“ Please accept my deepest condolences and sorrow for your loss of dear Mr. Rainey. The death of a loved one can be so very painful. It is at times like these when the Bible can really be a great source of peace . May your family draw much comfort from the wonderful promises found there. Jesus own words tell us, ".....Do not marvel at this.....all those in the memorial tombs will come out"(John 5:28,29). Death was not our Creator Jehovah Gods' purpose for your loved one as well as the rest of mankind. That is why it is too difficult to comprehend. God calls death an "enemy", one that that must be swallowed up. (Isaiah 25:8). He promises to bring back to life our dead loved ones in the resurrection to here on earth, in the very near future. (Psalms 37:10,11 and 29, and Revelation 21:3,4). Please know, this promise it not just a dream. There are nine documented cases found recorded for us in his Word. May this very real hope bring a salve to your broken hearts (Isaiah 55:11).
