“ I am so sorry to read about the death of your love one.. My family would like to express our condolences to your family. I would like to share this scripture with you at John 5:28, 29 "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming In which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I hope this scripture will bring your family comfort that soon you will see your Love one again.

“ *To the Richardson Family,
I wanted to write to let you know how sorry I was to read of the death of your loved one. Death is such a terrible and painful thing. God knows it is painful for us so He gives us comfort in his word the bible. It tells us at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever'. Then it tells us at Revelation 21:4 that 'there will be no more death, sickness and pain'. What a wonderful hope. And we know this will happen because Titus 1:2 says that 'God cannot lie'. Well I do hope these scriptures have been of comfort to you. If you have any questions or comments please e-mail me.*

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ Ed will be trully missed. He was a wonderful grandfather and wonderful stepdad and the pillar of strength and calm. May you rest in peace. We Love you ! Marjorie, Noelle, and Christian DuVall.

M. DuVall - December 31, 2013 at 10:39 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
