“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences. Even though death is now an eventuality for us all at present, it is the purpose of Jehovah and his son, Jesus Christ, to end all sickness, sorrow, and death permanantly. This is why Jehovah gave us his precious son, and why Jesus willingly gave his life in our behalf. John 3:16 says, "For God loved tho world so much, that he gave his only-begotten son so that anyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." Please know that others care about the pain you are going through, and our heavenly father carries your pain in his heart. It is his purpose to erase all pain, and the terrible sting of death. May that bible hope bring you some comfort at this time, and in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
