

John S. Wilson

January 27, 1967 - August 13, 2006

JOHN SINATRA WILSON, son of John E. Wilson and the late Billie D. Sowell Wilson, was born on January 27, 1967 in Baltimore, MD and departed this life on Sunday, August 13, 2006. As a child growing up in the church, Sinatra accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. Many often thought he would become a preacher due to the sermons he gave at home for his family. Sinatra, affectionately known to many as "Boo" or "Miami" received his education in Baltimore, MD, Hartsville, S.C. and Miami, FL., where he received honors as an academic student. He developed a passion for painting at an early age just as his father and became a certified painter. At the time of his sudden passing, he was employed with Maxim Pro Painting. On March 10, 1995, he married his wife, Wanda and from this union they were blessed with five children. Sinatra loved his family and had great pride in all five of his children. He also had a love and great pride for his wife Wanda's cooking. Sinatra will always be remembered for his cunning wit and humor. He had a way of making everyone laugh and enjoy life to the fullest. He shared a love of movies with his sister, also his best friend, "Nu Nu" and they often were considered the new "Siskel and Ebert". Sinatra had many interests within entertainment that filtered down to all of his children. He took great pride in the developing music career of his daughter, Samantha "Nynewest" and his son "Bubba's" football and basketball interest. In the physical realm of life, he may be gone, but spiritually and emotionally he will remain with us all forever. God has called home another precious angel. Sinatra leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted wife, Wanda Wilson; daughter, Samantha Law of Worchester, Mass; sons, Sinatra Stephon Murphy, Sinatra Rashad Wilson; daughter, Tiara and Shannon Lewis, all of Baltimore, MD; grandson, Cameron "Cam Cam" Hager of Baltimore, MD; father, John E. Wilson of Baltimore, MD; mother-in-law, Veronica Finley of Baltimore, MD; devoted sister, Sinetres "Nu Nu" Wilson of Baltimore, MD; four sisters, Sinora "MissBall" Wilson of Baltimore, MD, LaVontae Wilson and LaShay Beulah, both of Durham, NC and Mindy Russell of Baltimore, MD; brother-in-law, Sedric Beulah of Durham, NC; a fond cousin, Teresa McManus Davis of Hartsville, SC and a host of special aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello! Wilson's ! May I send my fellow feeling to you all. It has been a year since John died. Losing a dear loved one breaks the family circle. Hope and comfort comes from our Heavenly father. May the resurrection help to heal the pain of death , Rev.21:3-5. There are many happy times spent with John and may they remain in your hearts. My fellow feeling to you all, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
