

John Scott

July 26, 1928 - February 7, 2005

John Scott, son of the late Henderson Scott and Ophelia Scott-Anderson, was born July 26, 1928 in Appomattox, Virginia. He attended Mount Zion Baptist Church in Red House, Virginia at an early age. He departed this life on February 7, 2005, after a lengthy illness. He came to Baltimore, at an early age. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After his schooling he served in the United States Army for two years. After his discharge from the Army, John was united in Holy Matrimony with Lorraine Kane. From this union was one son, Conrad Scott. John worked at Ft. Holibird, until they closed, then worked for the United States Post Office until he retired. After retirement he loved to go deep water fishing, going hunting in Virginia with his cousins. He was a member of Israel Baptist Church, until his health failed him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Annie Mae Scott; two sisters, Marie Stanley and Mae Francis Scott-Bland; one sister-in-law, Kathleen Scott; one brother-in-law, Fred Bland; one niece, Marie A. Dorsey; four nephews, Gregory, Craig, Rodney Stanley and Kenneth Scott; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Mr. Scott, My condolences on the passing of your loved one. Please find comfort in Isaiah 26:19 which states, “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]”. What a wonderful hope the Bible holds out, we CAN and WILL see our loved ones again. Please keep this scripture in mind especially when you find yourself missing your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
