“ I send my heartfelt sympathy to the family at this time. I know how it feels to lose a loved one. It is the most sorrowful thing that we go through. What helps me to cope is deep prayers to my loving heavenly father, the hearer of prayer, reading the scriptures which tell us of God's wonderful promise to end sickness and death forever, and having deep faith and trust in God's promises. He never fails to carry out his word, and one day I know that all those who are asleep in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of the son of God and will come out of the memorial tombs. When things are overwhelming , please read these scriptures for comfort: Isaiah 25:8, Rev 21:3-5, John 11:25, and John 5:28,29. May your precious memories of your loved one help you to go on with life, and bring comfort to your hearts.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
