“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. It is during times like these that we can find comfort in God’s word, such as the scripture at 1 Corinthians 15: 26, 55 where it assures us that soon “the last enemy, death,” is to be removed. Then the foretold words will come true: “As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?”

“ Uncle John will be missed physically but I know that his spirit will be with me always. As it is believed, he is reunited with his siblings and cherished ancestors who have gone on before him. Rest in peace
"Sweet poppa, grasshopper."

“ Dearest Wendell, Belinda and family,

In times like this, there are no words appropriate for the feelings in my heart. Even though I never met your father (father-in-law and grandfather), I have been blessed by knowing his beloved family members, and my life has been enriched because of the Singleton Family. Your father must have been so proud of you all.

I will be keeping you in thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time. May God's peace be with you all.

*With heartfelt sympathy and love,
Joyce (& Ray) Mays*

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.
