“ I had the pleasure to meet “Pete” through his Aunt Ruby and cousin Byron and what struck me the most was he was such a gentleman! I also had the pleasure of going to a baseball game with him and the Grays. He was an avid sports fan and talking about the teams with him when he telephoned his Aunt Ruby was a blast because he was extremely knowledgeable. I also saw the pictures of him being a pall bearer for Dr. Martin Luther King, an honor granted to him when he went to Morehouse. I wish I had thanked him for his service in person but take this opportunity to remember him. He took wonderful photos due to his love of photography and I will always look fondly on the photo of Ruby, Pete and myself at a Nationals game and we looked fabulous thanks to his skill. Rest in peace Pete, you aren't in pain anymore and know you are shining down on us from a better place. Light and love to your entire family for the loss of a kind and gentle person.
