

John W. Stewart Jr.

October 11, 1961 - May 16, 2025

John William Stewart, Jr., son of the late Dorothy and John Stewart, Sr., was born in Baltimore, MD on October 11, 1961. He departed this life on May 16, 2025 after a lengthy illness.

John received his education in the Baltimore City School System and received his GED through Job Core and received certification in Body and Fender. On August 27, 1988, John W. Stewart, Jr. and Wanda Coe joined in holy matrimony and out of this union were three children, Durant, Johbonh and Davon.

John worked for Howard Luggage Company for 20 years until he retired, then he worked for Peter Angelos managing his downtown office buildings for 10 years until he became ill. John loved to shoot pool with his sons, play spades and chess. John loved to watch all sports, anything with a ball and his judge shows. John's favorite sayings were, 10-4, Roger That, Hassah and Will Goodbye Help You. John had a wonderful sense of humor and really loved his family and grandchildren.

He leaves to cherish fond memories; wife, Wanda Stewart; two sons, Durant and Devon; one daughter, Johbonh; one son-in-law, Antwon; godsons, Julian, Lawrence and Kevin; three goddaughters, Lafaithea, Jennifer and Medina; fourteen grandchildren, Dur'Shera, Valontay, Jahbrea, Desja, Lyric, Durant III,

Devine, Olivia, Talayah, Amira, Sade, Shante, Knowledge and Sincere; one great-grand daughter, Ivy; three brothers, John's twin, James, Arthur and Eugene (Boo); two sisters, Audrey and Lynette; one sister-in-law, Karen; several nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
