

John T. Fields

March 3, 1958 - July 20, 2006

On March 3, 1958, John Sr. and Agnes Fields of Baltimore, Maryland became proud parents of their second of two children; he was named JOHN T FIELDS, JR. He was also affectionately known to family and friends as “Bucky”. John was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Baltimore City College’s College Preparatory Curriculum in 1976. He furthered his formal education by attending Morgan State University in Baltimore, majoring in Business Administration. John initiated his professional career by attending and graduating from the Maryland State Police Academy. He later achieved Maryland State Trooper-First Class. John served the public community in this capacity for many years. He later diversified his career by serving in various capacities for Class Act Catering, Inc., by which he extended his love of public service. He loved exotic foods, sports, was an avid reader, and was always quick to give a compliment. John accepted Christ at an early age at Bethany Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland then under the leadership of Rev. Roland Johnson. There you found the young Bucky experiencing his early Christian development serving as an Usher and Choir member of the Roland Johnson Choral Ensemble. Later, Bucky joined The New Psalmist Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Walter S. Thomas. Bucky’s typical day began routinely with the reading of Scriptures. Bucky also was quite a dresser. All those who knew him marveled at his dapper sense of fashion and meticulous style. John was a very compassionate individual, often seeking to make life just a little bit easier for his neighbor. It was not uncommon to see him reaching out and touching the lives of some very special autistic children, encouraging them in times of trouble and despair. Bucky also nurtured and enjoyed a very close relationship with his niece and nephew, Natia and Justin, and was particularly instrumental in their guidance and development as fine young people. John is preceded in death by his beloved mother, Rev. Agnes Norrine Fields. Bucky's memory will be forever embedded in the hearts of many, and he leaves to carry on the Faith: his devoted father, Deacon John T. Fields, Sr.; one loving sister, Helen Fields-Moore; one niece, Natia Moore; one nephew, Justin Moore; seven aunts, seven uncles; one brother-in-law, Kenneth Moore; his former wife, Vickie Harris-Fields; many cousins; two devoted friends, Joseph Hill and Eugene Washington; and a host of extended family and friends.

“ Well my friend. I didn't get a chance to say goodbye to you. You no longer have to suffer, from the demons or the troubles of this wicked world. You are now resting in Jesus's arms, and with your precious beautiful Mother. Boy, do I miss you both. There will never be another Agnes Norrine Fields, or another John T. Fields, Jr. I still marvel over our good times at Morgan State University. I still look at our pictures. Rest now and I now you are happy. You wouldn't want to trade heaven for this hell on earth.##imported-begin##Karen Y. Harris##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hi! Field's! May I take time to express fellow feeling to you all in losing John. I worked with him in the catering field. Death breaks our family circle every time it happen. We can look to the future with confidence because we are so near the time when our heavenly father will bring the earth back to a Paradise. May knowing rhis help us to keep doing as John 17:3 say to take in knowledge of the only true God and his son, Jesus to live forever. May all the wonferul cherished memories of John stay close to you all hearts. Sincerely, Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian crosby##imported-end##
