“ I want to express my sympathy. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11: 20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Highsmith's family and friends. The loss of a dearly loved one can result in great sorrow, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of the resurrection, stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and the truth found in God's Word, the Bible, comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere sympathy to the family of John. He is now resting in the arms of our loving father, Jehovah. One day soon he will hear the voice of his dear Son Jesus, and he will awaken and come out from the memorial tombs. This is the promise of Jehovah, the God who cannot lie. Titus 1:2, John 5:26-29. May you find much comfort and strength in this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
