“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. The pain of death can be so overwhelming, and very hard to come to terms with. My heart goes out to you all. Please try to remember that death is only temporary, and one day the dead will hear the voice of our dear Saviour Jesus and will come out of the memorial tombs back to life in peaceful conditions. John 5:28,29. I pray that you find much comfort from the holy scriptures, which lets us know that the pain and sorrow we go through in this life will soon be a thing of the past. One day their will only be happiness for obedient mankind , which is what God intended for us from the beginning. As Isaiah 25,8 says, Jehovah will one day swallow up death forever. May your cherished memories of John help you to cope at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Scott's family and friends. As you cherish your memories of John, take comfort in our Heavenly Father's promise of a resurrection. Daniel 12:2 states: "And many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." I encourage you to comfort your hearts through a study of the truth found in God's Word, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hi ! Scott's ! I would like to express my condolences to you all in your recent lost of Mr.John at the age of 82 years young. The circle of life is broken when some one dies. The bible has so much comfort found in it such as 2 Cor.1:3 in all our tribulations. Imagine the happiness that will result when our dead loved ones are resurrected. Great JOY for us and them too. I am looking forward to that happening because our heavenly father can not lie. May time help to heal the pain of death and the love from others too. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
