

John W. Spriggs

March 10, 1929 - March 24, 2005

On March 10, 1929 John Wesley Spriggs was born to Violet O'Neil Waters-Spriggs and Crownley Wesley Spriggs. He died suddenly on March 24, 2005. John was mainly educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and completed his studies in the U.S. Armed Services. He was employed by Northern Pacific Railway and was a career military man who served in both the U.S. Army and U.S. Navy. John was very proud that during his military service he never hurt or killed anyone. He was assigned to hospital duty and burial detail. He was very jovial and thrilled others with his dry sense of humor. After his retirement, he devoted himself to caring for his aunt and sister until their death. In late 2002 John made a careful study of the scriptures and became fixated on dedicating his life to Jehovah God. He symbolized his dedication to Jehovah in 2004. While bearing his illness privately, John persisted in his service to Jehovah God. He could be routinely observed preaching to others on York Road. Left to mourn John's death are loving cousins and friends.
