

John Edward Ward

March 10, 1929 - November 25, 2014

JOHN EDWARD HURST WARD known to his family and friends and (Hurst) was born March 10, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Holden Ward Sr. and Anita Mitchell Ward. God called him home on November 25, 2014.

John attended Dunbar High School and later joined the United States Army. He served on the front line of the Korean War from July 6, 1951 to April 6, 1953 when he received his honorable discharge from active duty.

Hurst worked for the Dundalk Lumber Company for many years and later became part owner until his retirement. During his retirement, he held a part time job for many years at the Faith Presbyterian Church. His main purpose in life was providing for his late wife Billie and his family. Hurst loved football and was a huge Raven's fan. He would sit back on Sunday, Monday and Thursday watching his beloved Ravens play the game. Hurst was a good husband, father, uncle and friend. He was willing to help in times of need. Hurst enjoyed telling stories about the 'good ole days' growing up in Baltimore as well as visiting family members in Gloucester, Virginia.

His wife Billie Dell Ward; one step-daughter and two step-sons, Joan, James and Roger all have preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted daughter, Hope; his son, Carl and his wife (Shantell); three grandsons, two granddaughters-in-law; four great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
