

John Wesley James

April 23, 1973 - June 9, 2002

John Welsey James III was born April 23, 1973 to Carrie Taylor James Edwards and John James Jr. He received his formal education in the Connecticut and Maryland Public School School Systems, graduating from Lake Clifton High School here in Baltimore, Maryland. John received Christ as his personal Savior at an early age and was baptized. When his family later moved to Baltimore, he then attended several churches in the area. As a young man, John was always quiet and soft-spoken. Even during this lengthy illness, he set goals and persevered to see them through completion. He was a strong-willed person who had a strong value system and work ethics that he developed earlier in his life. In other words, he was a serious-minded person. He will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved him. John leaves to cherish his precious memory; his mother, Carrie Taylor James Edwards; his father, John James Jr.; one brother, Leonard James; one sister, Alanda James; two grandmothers, Clara James and Mary Taylor; a devoted aunt and uncle, Deborah and Wendell Spence; two remaining aunts, Jonola Taylor Turpin, Pamela (James) Griffin; seven uncles, Robert (Ozzie) Taylor, Roger James, Tilton James, Johnny Taylor, Brian (Levada) Taylor, Kenneth (Darlene) Taylor and Gwayland (Vanessa) McClenney; three great aunts, two great uncles, a host of cousins, relatives and friends.
