“ *I offer my condolences to the family of Mr Anderson. I know how hurt you all must be, because it is a devastating thing to lose someone you love. But know this, that God has something better in store for those who love him. First he tells us that he will destroy this enemy, death, which causes us so much pain, and then he promises a wonderful thing will take place. He lets us know that all know that all those asleep in death in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out. Jehovah never forgets our loved ones, and he desires all to have eternal life in peace and happiness. May you find much comfort and strength from the promises of Jehovah God, and know that he never fails to fulfill his promises. “ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to Mr. Anderson's family. As you reflect on his life and draw comfort from your precious memories, remember the One who is the source of life has given us a source of comfort doing times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the Anderson Family. It is with heart-felt sympathies that I express my condolences. May GOD continue to shine upon you and your family, giving you the strength and courage to overcome what some may not understand. To his children, Erica and Johnnie, I also lost my dad suddenly (in 2007) and it was very hard to deal with. I offer to you my prayers and understanding. Stay strong and embrace the family members that are here for you today. Just know that your dad is with you always. To my dearest, dearest friend Sandella: time heals ALL pain. Even though "Uncle Johnnie" is no longer with you physically, he is with you spiritually and knowing that will help ease your pain.##imported-begin##Stacy Moody##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Anderson. The Bible can give us much comfort and hope. One such comforting verse I would like to share with you is John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
