“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ John is a friend who will be truly missed. I thank him for the love and encouragement he gave to my family. He was always willing to help others.

“ I send my deep condolences for the loss of John. Although I didn't know him personally, I would still like to leave a comforting thought with you from the bible. At Isaiah 25:8 God promises that soon he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it." That is a promise that we can put faith in, because Jesus gave his life so that we could have life in abundance. I pray that you are comforted with the thought of being reunited with John once again.

“ Id like to express my condolences to the family. If I may share a brief thought from Gods word found in Psalms 34:17,18 "They cried out, and Jehovah himself heard, And out of all their distresses he delivered them. Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Take solace in the fact that God not only listens to your prayers but will give the strength to endure and know that you will see your loved one again in the coming resurrection (Acts 24:15)
