“ Pastor Viola,

We are so sorry and saddened to hear of the passing of Deacon Williams and we extend our heartfelt condolences to you and your family. Deacon Williams was such a kind, faithful, humble, and wise man of God and his earthly presence will be missed. Steve and I are praying for you today as you lay him to rest. May God gently and loving hold you, your family, and your St. John's Church Family close as you grieve his passing.

Deacon John T. Williams will be greatly missed in the presence of St. John's United Holy Church Membership. I enjoyed his informative instructions of wisdom and christian education during our Bible Studies and Senior Missionary Department Meetings where he served as Vice President and Advisor. Prayer for his Family. God call your love one home to his final resting place.
