“ DayDay, tomorrow will mark one year of you leaving your earthly being for home. To me I find peace in feeling that when you closed your eyes to take a breather you saw Mommy and didn't look back. Thank You for being My Baby Brother. I Love and Miss you so much

“ To the family of John Wilson, took me a while to do this, didn't get a chance to say my good byes to my homie but GOD knew best. One thing I can say John was a fighter when I often talk to him he would say all the time he was tired. Why me, my encouraging words was God makes no mistakes and he knew you was able to handle it. So God decided to grant his wishes and call him home. To one of the funniest, craziest, all around friends I even known "REST IN PEACE" my brother. Praying for you continuous Janice and the boys.

“ When we were about two and four, I had you in a corner of Grandma's steps with my hands just a going. Audrey thought I was fighting you. And to her surprise I was fixing your clothes. She still laughs about it to this day. I say this to say I taught you to be neat. Miss you much

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“Brother John Wilson was truly a wonderfeul person in the Lord. He was our newest member and I am privileged to have known him for such a short time. I'm sadden that he had to leave us so soon in his life but God knew it was time for him to come home. He was very compassionate, faithful, patiently and had a beautiful smile. May God bless his family members and Church Family that he leaves behind. Minister Joann E. Hill, Mt. Airy Pentecostal Church Family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Yes, I do look forward to that day. My brother and I buried our Mother in April of 2011. I didn't think I would bury my brother just three years and one month later. But all the love waiting for him in Heaven. Oh the joy. No more pain. To God be the glory
