

John Woodies

March 15, 1971 - July 13, 2009

On March 15, 1971 in Brooklyn, New York, our beloved brother, uncle, cousin, friend, John Woodies Jr. was born to the late Mary Smith and John Woodies Sr. John was a family oriented man who wanted nothing better than to have them close together at all times. John loved his family deeply. John completed his educational training in NYC Public School System. John was a very multi-talented human being. He held various jobs in all types of fields. You name it, he did it. John worked and completed any task was given to him. He built headstones, sold homes, made music, which was his passion and his last job was installing pools. John liked to travel in his early years he lived in Atlanta, Georgia; He traveled to the continent of Africa and many other countries. In the mid 1990,s he relocated to Baltimore, MD. Where he made a life for himself. In Baltimore all his friends knew him as Seven (7). Seven tried so hard in life to make everyone around him happy and always wanted his family to see things his way especially his sisters and nieces because he was the only male surrounded by a lot of women. He was the man in the family. His mother, Mary A. Smith, precedes him in death. He leaves to cherish his memory; two sons, Seven Woodies and Emmanuel Woodies and one honorary son, Malik Kelly; his father, John Woodies; six sisters, Hameedah Muhammad, Diana, Marjorie and Loretta Smith, Mary Woodies; three brothers, Christopher and Tauri Tucker and Dennis Pugh; fiancée, Pamela Powell and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

“ I would like to express condolences to you all, the family and friends. Losing a dear love one hurt and breaks the circle of life for all. One thing is for sure our heavenly father cares, (1 Peter 5:7) so much about you all and is there with all the comfort needed to get through the pain and loss. In the future we will be able to enjoy our love ones free from sickness, sorrow, pain and unforeseen things that happening to cause death. I am so looking forward to that happening because I loss my dear mother in December this year too. I hope these few words will be positive and uplifting to read. May all the cherish and special times with John help on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family, It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4) As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you continue to find comfort from your precious memories.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
