

Johnathan Quinn

December 9, 1953 - April 7, 2018

Johnathan Quinn, the son of the late Benjamin Franklin Quinn, Sr., and Cornelius Wiggins, was born on December 9, 1953. Johnathan was raised and nourished by the late Howard A. Wiggins in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life after enduring a lengthy illness on Saturday, April 7, 2018.

Johnathan attended Johnston Square Elementary, Lombard Junior High, and Fairmount Hill High School in Baltimore, Maryland. He worked at F.M. Harvey Construction Company for several years and various other companies throughout his life. While attending Lombard Junior High School, Johnathan's teacher Christiana Phillips invited him to church (East Baltimore Deliverance). Johnathan replied, "I might not come, but I have a lot of brothers and sisters, I will send them." Johnathan did attend East Baltimore Deliverance on various occasions.

Johnathan was a loving, faithful and devoted son. He is to be commended for his loyalty, commitment and love for his mother. Though ill, he faithfully made a way to visit his mother and would not allow anything to keep him from seeing her. Johnathan also loved to spend time with his family and friends. Johnathan is now with the Lord. He has left us with many memories to cherish: his smile, laughter, joyful spirit and his love for his family. He loved listening to jazz music and dancing to the tunes of Miles Davis, Will Downing, Kenny G and many other Jazz artists. Johnathan enjoyed his life and was liked by many. He loved to cook on Sundays, eating crabs in the summer and enjoyed watching wrestling. Johnathan was also known for his neighborhood transportation service. He will surely be remembered at Future Care Nursing Home for his enthusiastic, high spirited and energetic life style.

Johnathan was preceded in death by three brothers, Benjamin Franklin Quinn Jr., Graylin Quinn and Ernest Wiggins.

Cherishing the memories of Johnathan's life are: his loving mother Cornelius Wiggins, his son, Artiba Harrison, his daughter-in-law Dollean Harrison, and grandson Artiba Harrison Jr., fifteen brothers and sisters; Barbara Ann House, Marion (Albert) Davis, Christine (Gilbert) Savoy, Howard Curtis Wiggins, Marsha (Edward) Matthews, Crystal Johnson, Beverly (Shanmugam) Karalasingham, Howard Charles Quinn, Albert Wiggins, Frances (Maurice) Russell, Sharon Wiggins, Sandra Wiggins, Augusta Sheldon Wiggins, Nathaniel R. (Pheobia) Wiggins, Cornelius Frances "Linda" Wiggins; four aunts, Gladys B. Young, Dorothy Filmore, Mary Wiggins and Stella Wiggins; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends; and a special dedicated and devoted friend, Thomasine Carey.

“ Johnathan and I were in classes together in both elementary and junior high schools. I clearly recall his kindness, thoughtfulness and easy going mannerism. He would always talk about his mom and his many siblings. My sincerest sympathy to his family.
