

Johnella Cannon

May 9, 1939 - July 31, 2025

JOHNELLA CANNON, a remarkable woman who left this world peacefully on July 30, 2025, at the age of 86, will be deeply missed by her family and friends. Born on May 9, 1939, in Greenwood, South Carolina, Johnella grew up under the loving guidance of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John and Luella Mathis.

Johnella's life took her to Baltimore, Maryland, where she later settled in Laurel, Maryland. During her tenure at Laurel Regional Hospital, she dedicated herself to her career and retired after many years of service. Johnella was married to the late Robert Cannon, and together they had one cherished child, the late Rodney Cannon.

Throughout her life, Johnella was a devoted mother, wife, and church member, and her contributions to her family and community were immeasurable. Johnella's passing will leave an indelible mark on all who knew her. Her memory will live on in the hearts of those she touched, and her legacy as a remarkable woman.

She leaves to mourn: her niece, her Janae (daughter of her late brother Thomas Simmons); bonus daughter, Bernie; a devoted cousin, Cherylette (Alphonse); and her children, Nykita, Erica and James; a wonderful devoted friend and caregiver, Hester; and a host of cousins, family members, and friends
