

Johnney Whitfield Jr.

December 8, 1962 - August 20, 2015

Johnney Whitfield, Jr, son of the late Johnney Whitfield, Sr. and Ernestine Whitfield, was born on December 8, 1962, in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on August 20, 2015, after short illness.

John, as he was affectionately called, received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Upon graduating from Walbrook Senior High School, he was employed with McCormick Spice Company for many years. After ending his employment at McCormick, he went on to work for the MTA in the Janitorial department.

At an early age, John accepted Christ at the Pennsylvania Avenue A.M.E. Zion Church along with his siblings. On May 20, 1989, John united in marriage with Delores Ray for many years, who still remained a special friend to him.

John, also known to others by the nicknames "Six-Nine", "Big Dip" and "Achy Breaky" was a loving and wonderful man who cared deeply about his family. John would go out of his way to help people in any way possible. He had a smile and laugh that would light up a room. John always looked forward to Sunday dinners and holidays so that he could see his family and more importantly, eat. John would always keep his family laughing and smiling, especially those times when he would ask you the same question more than once. John would not leave his family members or friends without saying, "I Love You, Hear?"

John was preceded in death by his loving father, Johnney Whitfield, Sr. and his great nephew, Neveah Turner. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Ernestine Whitfield; three daughters, Ciara and Rabiah Whitfield and Kihana Stephens; six sisters, Quanie DeShields, Johnnie May Smith, Bernadette Miles-Bey, Marlene Whitfield, Sheila Harris and Inest Whitfield; one brother, Mark Whitfield; one sister-in-law, Stephanie Whitfield; two brothers-in-law, Anthony Harris and Merle Miles-Bey; one granddaughter, Mackenzie Pate; one grandson, Amir Hicks, Jr.; two uncles, Robert Lee Singleton and Charles Singleton; seven nieces, three nephews, nine great nieces, seven great nephews, his ex-wife, Delores Ray, and a host of other family members and friends.
