

Johnnie A. Jones

October 16, 1960 - October 20, 2008

JOHNNIE ANGELO JONES, JR., son of Barbara Ann Jones and the late Johnnie A. Jones, Sr., was born on October 16, 1960 in Washington, D. C., where he lived for several years before his family moved to New York. His mother has always known John to be the “heart of our hearts.” His love for family reflected all throughout his life. John accepted Christ at a young age at Christ Community Church in Peekskill, New York. While there, he developed his skills for playing the drums. He then joined Greater Refuge Temple in Harlem, New York, where Bishop William L. Bonner was pastor. John received his early education in his hometown at Peekskill High School. He later attended Northern Westchester Technical School, where he earned his certification in plumbing. John loved playing basketball with friends, listening to good music and most of all, shopping (he was a sharp dresser). Johnnie A. Jones, Jr. leaves to celebrate his life; five sisters, Jennifer Tolbert, Veronica Harrington, Joyce Thomas, Joy Kelly and Ruth C. Benjamin, four brothers, Kevin Jones, Samuel Jones, Michael Jones and James Jones; sister-in-law, Dawn Van Jones; four brothers-in-law, Herman Tolbert Sr., Joshua Kelly, Matthew Benjamin and Rev. Bennie Thomas He also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ May you be comforted and strengthened by our loving heavenly father to help you to cope with the loss of Johnnie. Losing a loved one is so hard to deal with. You have my deepest sympathy. Jehovah God has taken steps to end sickness and death forever. Through his son, Christ Jesus, all the things we suffer through will be a thing of the past. As for our loved ones who have died, he promises that they will come back to life. Keep this wonderful scripture close to your hearts. At John 11:25 Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." At that time Johnnie, and millions of others will come back to life. May your cherished memories help to comfort you until the glorious day of salvation arrives.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hi ! Jones! I would like to send my fellow feeling to you all in your recent circle of life being broken. Death affect all of mankind, Romans 5:12. The time is coming when we will no longer be affected by all the effects of lossing a dear loved one,Rev.21:-35. We can look forward to all mankind living in harmony with our heavenly father thoughts at Ps.145:16. May all the times shared with Johnnie help to support you all on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Johnnie was a regular patron at library on Falls Rd. When he came in the first was Hi Sister Martha he was really a bright when he visted the branch. He would buy all our magazines sometimes he would have money if he didn't he would say Sister Martha can i pay you later i say sure. When i walked down Falls Rd. and he was on the steps he would call out my name with a piano smile. I will surly miss that smile and his saying Pray for me##imported-begin##Martha Wilson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
