

Johnnie B. Cherry

January 12, 1961 - February 5, 2003

Johnnie B. Cherry III, son of Johnnie B. and Mary Ann Cherry, was born on January 12, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 5, 2003 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Mergenthaler Vocational Technical Senior High School. He also attended Baltimore City Community College. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time cook for many years. Johnnie Cherry was a faithful churchgoer when his health permitted at the New Psalmist Baptist Church. Johnnie, also called "Phillip," took great delight in music, dancing and clothes. He had a radiant mannerism and love in caring for others. He would always end his conversations with "I love you." His legacy of love will remain forever. He leaves to mourn: his mother and father, Johnnie B. Cherry Sr. and Mary Ann Cherry; two sisters, Sherry and Rhonda; two grandmothers, Mary Elizabeth and Mary Hardin; one niece, Ayana; three nephews, Shawn, Jermaine and Cornell; two great-nieces, Shabria and J'Kiara; two great-nephews, Deon and Ja'Shawn; four aunts, Sarah, Elizabeth, Barbara and Edna; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
