“ Pat and family, Paula and I wish to extend to you our deepest sympathies on the passing of Johnnie. We are grateful for the moments and memories of fellowshipping with one another. We are grateful for the moments and memories of kindness extended to us on numerous occasions. We will miss Johnnie's infectious laughter and the levity and light that he brought into a room. We take great satisfaction in knowing, that Johnnie is at rest from his earthly labor and is reaping his heavenly rewards. We pray that God will lead you all through this season of sorrow.

May God continue to bless you,

Earl and Paula King
