“ I send my warm and sincere condolences to your family. I know your hearts are saddened at this time, but know that the God of all comfort will be with us when we go through these times of sorrow, to give is the comfort that we need and the strength to face another day. Remember too, that Jesus gave his precious life to undo the hurt and pain that death brings upon us. At John 10:10 he makes this wonderful promise, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance. Also, Jehovah God has appointed this beloved son to resurrect the dead. Jesus says: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May you find strength to face another day, and may your precious memories, which death cannot take away, linger in your hearts always. John 11:25##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful promise found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
