“ I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to the family at this most difficult tiime. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to terms with, and it is something we can never get used to. One day Jehovah God promises a new day will dawn where such things as violence, sickness, and death will be a thing of the past. As for the dead they will one day hear the voice of the Son of God, and all who are in those memorial tombs will awaken from the sleep of death. John 5:28,29. May you recieve much comfort and strength from his promises, and may your cherished memories of happier days spent with Johnnie bring fond memories to your hearts to help you to endure. Take care family, and may God bless you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Lacey's ! I would extend fellow feeling to you all the family and friends. Losing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life for all. It hurts more when you personally know the family, Mary and family. We know the effect of death since we both have lost someone very dear to the heart. The Bible has given the comfort needed to keep on the journey of life, 2 Cor. 1:4. We are looking forward to the resurrection when many of our dear loved ones will hear Jesus' voice and come out as John 5: 28. So to Mary and family may the gift of memories from your heavenly father Jehovah keep supporting and sustaining you all until the time comes when dying will be a thing of the PAST. Your Spiritual Sisters & friends, Much love always. Lillian and Omolara.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death were never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time is indefinite as put into our hearts. John 5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm 37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm 55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Johnnie Hampton Lacey, Jr. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
