“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. The sorrow you are experiencing now will soon be alleviated. God promises at John 5:28, 29 that all those in the memorial tombs will soon hear his voice and come out. He also lets us know, at John 3:16 and John 17:3 what we must do to witness this grand event. May this wonderful promise give you comfort now and in the days to come.###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I send my sincere sympathy to the family at this sad time. Losing a loved one in death is most hurtful for the family members and friends, and I hope that you receive much comfort to help you to endure. Sickness and death was never Jehovah's purpose for mankind, and he promises at 1st Cor 15:26 that as the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Ome day, John 5:28 29 says that all those in the memorial tombs; that is all those in God's memory, will be brought up out of those tombs, because the scripture says that they will hear Jesus's voice and come out." What a glorious day that will be. So family, trust in Jehovah with all your hearts, because he is the God of truth and salvation, and all his promises will come to pass. Isaiah 55:11. Put faith in the ransom sacrifice of Christ Jesus, because his yoke is kindly, and his load is light. One day we will see our loved ones again, so until that day, may your precious memries of Johnnie help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
