

Johnnie Nicholas Lee

November 28, 1970 - November 5, 2007

Johnnie Nicholas "Stumpy", formerly of Charles City/Richmond, suddenly departed this life Monday, Nov. 5, 2007. He was born on Nov. 28, 1970. He is preceded in death by his father Johnnie N. Lee, Sr. his grandmother Ruth Lee, grandfather Albert Cotman and great grandmother Mollie Lee and his fiancée Melissa Ann Ayala. He accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Little Elam Baptist Church. He attended Charles City County schools. He grew to love trucks by having a close association and friendship with his neighbors Walter "Bubba" Jones and Clarence "King" Johnson. He ultimately learned to drive the big rigs at the early age of 15. Truck driving became his livelihood. He established his own trucking business (Melissa's Hauling) only a year ago. He was well known as Casanova! To family and to friends he was fondly known as Stumpy! He leaves to cherish his beautiful memory his loving mother Florence Lee, his brother Carlos Cotman (Denise) - Charles City; his sisters Hope Lee (Terrance) - Richmond; Sylvia White - Williamsburg; two daughters K'stavia and Shakeera Lee. Three sons Jonnie III, G'Onni and Jamie Lee. Grandmother Lena Cotman. A host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins, other relatives and friends. Several devoted friends; Primetime, Shoebotty, Waterboy and Juvenile.

“ *Well my dearest husband it is 2015 and you're children are doing well. Like you it took one time to get into trouble and that was it for them. Thank you for looking over them!
Next year we are moving to Vegas so that they can persue their dreams. They are natural motor crossmen. Loud ingines and stuff. I promise we will be by to visit before we leave and every year after.
We miss you so much my love. Keep over us with your brother.*

Love your wife always and kids

“ I would like to share my sincere sympathy with the family of Mr lee. I know you all are in pain now, and missing him very much. No sorrow can compare to the sorrow death brings. My heart goes out to you all, because I too have known the pain of losing a loved one. I would like to share this one comforting scripture with you found at Rev 21,4 which says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." May this scripture, and the hope of the resurrection found in many scriptures such as Acts 24,15; Daniel 12,2, and John 5:28,29 be a source of encouragement and strength to you as well. Remember dear ones, our dead loved ones will open their eyes again, and we can be on hand to witness this momentous event if we are obedient and faithful children of God.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Johnnie. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ THERE HAS BEEN SOME TUFF DAY'S WITHOUT YOU HERE, MY HEART YEARNS TO SEE YOU , BUT I KNOW THAT UNTIL I REACH HEAVEN THAT IS NOT GOING TO HAPPEN. LOOKING AT YOUR SONS EVERYDAY AND SEEING YOUR FACE CARRIES ME FROM DAY TO DAY, ONLY YOU WOULD KNOW HOW I FELT. I'VE LOVED YOU FROM THE MOMENT I SAW YOU AND I WILL CARRY OUR MEMORIES THAT WE SHARED AS HUSBAND AND WIFE, AND EVEN AS FRIENDS IN MY HEART UNTIL THE DAY THAT I DIE. I LOVE YOU!
