

Johnnie Mae Travis-Still

December 21, 1945 - December 8, 2019

A Matriarch JOHNNIE MAE TRAVIS was born into the world on December 21, 1945, to the late Thomas and Mary Travis. She departed this world on December 8, 2019, after complications from an accident.

Mae, as she was affectionately known, was a wonderful woman who grew up in a small town in Elwood, New Jersey. After graduating from Oakcrest High School, she moved to Atlantic City and started her career. After their marriage on February 2, 1967 to her then husband George Still Sr. lived in Fort Dix. In 1971, she then moved to Baltimore, Maryland to further her education in Business. Over the years, Mae received numerous achievements such as the 1984 Dean's List from Morgan State.

She enjoyed her retirement from the State Department of Assessment & Taxation and was a member of Zora Elliott Temple #177 for over twenty years. In her leisure, she relished in sewing, gardening, crossword puzzles, and horror movies. All who knew her will say she was loyal, kind, and dependable and she will sincerely be missed.

Mae was preceded in death by her beloved daughter Rayna and grandson Darius. She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, George Jr. and daughter-in-law, Janene (Shelly); two daughters, Turina and Mary (Gena) and son-in-law Samuel (CC); granddaughters, Alisha, Shauna, and Sophia; grandsons,

Kevin, Brandon, Allen, MaCah, Justus, and Seth; great-granchildren, Shaniyah, Brandon Jr. (BJ), William, and Karson; a cousin, and friend with whom she shared an unbreakable bond, Maryann and Wayne; as well as a host of other relatives and friends in Maryland and New Jersey.
