

Johnny Bunch

August 2, 1960 - July 4, 2003

Johnny Bunch, Sr., son of Virginia Bunch and the late Maryland Bunch, was born on August 2, 1960 in Wayne County, North Carolina. He quietly entered new life after a sudden illness on July 4, 2003. Johnny received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where he attended Fairmount Hill High School. After high school he took up a trade in construction as well as painting. His special interests and hobbies were helping out his family with inside and outside jobs. On August 11, 1984, he married his teenage sweetheart, Gertrude "Sug" White (Bunch). From this union they had two children, Latanya and Johnny Bunch. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Virginia Bunch; his wife, Gertrude Bunch; two children, Latanya and Johnny; one stepson, Wayne Scott; four grandchildren, Dominique, Nathaniel, Wayne and Jalen; two sisters, Ingela and Mary; two brothers, Major and Michael (two brothers, Percy and June preceded him in death); six sisters-in-law, Liz, Dora, Mildred, Irene, Cile and Michelle; three brothers-in-law, Maurice, Randolph and Vasco; two aunts, Carolyn and Ethel; two great-aunts, Elnora Jordan (of New York) and Bertha Batts (of North Carolina); three uncles, Bobby, Henry and Ruffin; a devoted best friend, Harry "Bimp" Scott; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am a friend of Liz. I was sorry to hear about the home-going of your loved one. But yes, let us reflect on his home coming and his preparing a place for his loved ones, as the loved ones before him had prepared a place for him!! Always trust in the Lord and lean on God for strength. Cry when you have to!! Laugh when you need to !! Love each other more. I will keep you in my prayers during this difficult time. May God Bless and give You All Peace and Comfort!!!!##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##
