

Johnny James Toliver

October 6, 1931 - April 20, 2002

Johnny James Toliver, son of the late Leslie L. Toliver of Chester, South Carolina and Eunice Irene Hall of Blackstock, South Carolina, departed this life on April 20, 2002 at 3:00 a.m. after experiencing a period of declining health. John was born on October 6, 1931 in Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland. John was affectionately called "Little John" by those close to him. He loved all sports but played baseball. He was a catcher for a baseball team called the "Renegades of Llewelyn Avenue" John attended Dunbar High School and graduated from Carver Vocational Senior High School. John was baptized at the age of fourteen at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, which was then located on Rutland Avenue and Preston Street. He started work at a very young age as a Western Union Messenger. He joined the United States Army in 1952 during the Korean War. After the war, he returned to the state to work for Capital Generators rebuilding generators. Finally he worked for B. Green and Monroe Foods in Jessup, Maryland until his illness. John married (ex-wife) Delores Thomas during his youth. This union included John's oldest stepson. Later he married Louella Green and to this union two sons were born, Shawn Maurice and Kevin Leslie Toliver, and included three stepchildren. He leaves to mourn: one daughter, Linda; two sons, Shawn and Kevin; three stepsons, Rodney Toliver, Quinton and Anthony Myles; two stepdaughters, Johnetta Toliver and Cynthia Sorrell; two sisters, Shirley Freeman and Christine McNair; three grandchildren, Angelo (Man), Anthony, Sierra, Lakia, Quinton Jr., Tyra and Lisa; three aunts, three uncles, many nieces, nephews, friends and a special childhood friend, Alice.
